

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Harlan Olson has spent his lifetime preserving South Dakota's heritage; and,

Whereas, Harlan has taken upon himself the responsibility of educating hundreds of school children about South Dakota's history; and,

Whereas, Harlan has researched and written many articles to help educate the public on Lake Poinsett's history; and,

Whereas, Harlan has shared his time and ideas for the planning of the building and exhibits for the new Lake Poinsett Area History Museum; and,

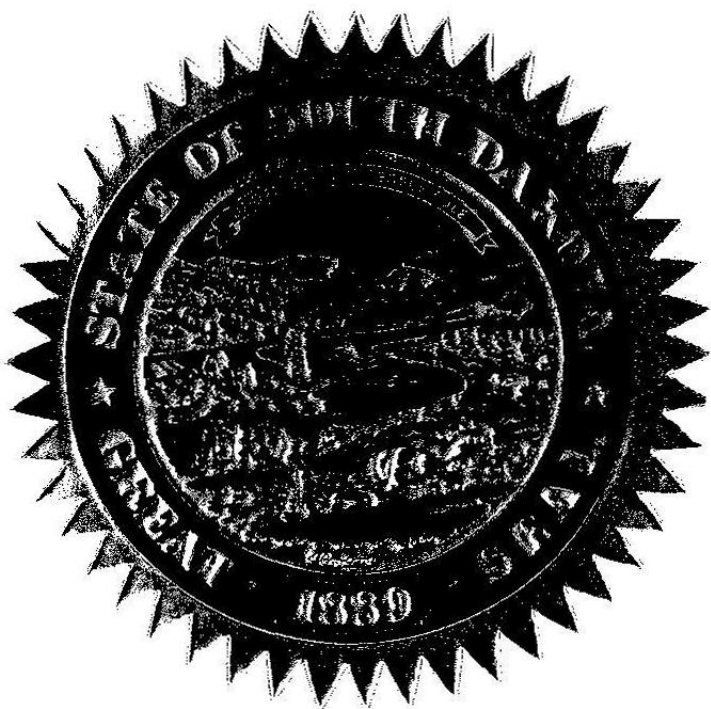

Whereas, Harlan has generously loaned hundreds of his artifacts for exhibit at the Lake Poinsett Area History Museum:

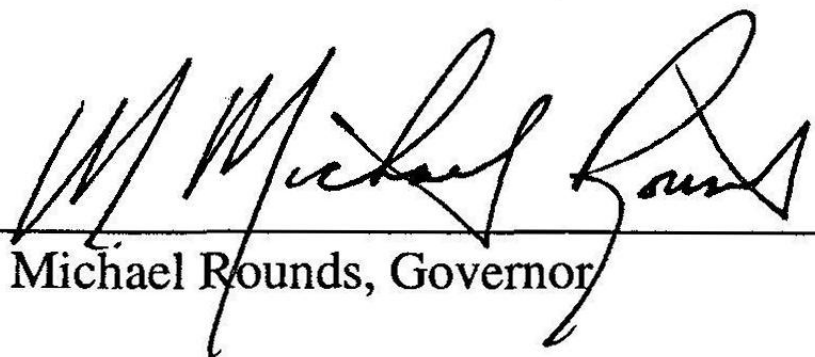

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 19, 2007, the opening of the Lake Poinsett Area History Museum, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
